

RURAL BANKING INSTITUTE (RBaI)

Ensuring the Long Term Education and Professional Servicing to Rural Banks and Organizations that are Into Rural Financing

Giovanni D. Gabriento
Chairman, RBRDFI

RBAP 61st Charter Symposium
October 22 – 23, 2018

The Need to Move Beyond RBRDFI

- Demand from clients for a new suite of services that RBRDFI is unable to accommodate
- Limitations preventing RBRDFI to offer services beyond training
- Internal challenges, brought about by past activities, that will hamper Foundation growth

RBRDFI (as per Charter)

- Financing
 - R&D – agri, natural resources, industry, social sciences, humanities, food and nutrition
- Assistance
 - Material and Financial – students and qualified entities
- Capacity Building related to agriculture, business and financial management
 - Seminars
 - Workshops
 - Educational Campaigns
- Data gathering
 - Agri, natural resources, industry, social sciences, humanities, food and nutrition
 - Business and Financial Management
- Grant and Funding Acquisition
 - Local
 - Foreign

RBal

- Institute for continuous learning, anchored on the 5 Disciplines of a Learning Organization
- Competency Building
 - Training/Workshops
 - Seminars
 - Certifications
 - Roadshows
 - Networking & Learning Partnerships
- Research & Publication
- Data Center & Analytics Services
- Consultancy & Mentoring

Activities to Date

- Working draft of the Articles of Incorporation completed. For final (content) review of consultant before review of legal
- Initial draft of products and services catalogue completed
- Organizational structure drafting
- Other documentary requirements (e.g. By-laws completed. For final (content) review of consultant

Vision of RBal

Envisioned by Past Presidents Enrique Abellana and Antonio Pasia as a center for excellence in the continued education of individuals and the public, to the necessity of rural banking and rural finance as keys to uplift the lives of rural folk and MSMEs, by improving the competencies of organizations and individuals that are engaged in the business of rural financing.

Enrique "Eking" Abellana

